PROPOSED BY-LAW CHANGES TO REINSTATEMENT – RESIGNED IN GOOD STANDING
BY-LAW 6.4.1 – RESIGNED IN GOOD STANDING

By-Law	Current Wording	Proposed Wording	Reason
By-Law 6.4.1	6.4.1 Resigned in Good Standing A person who has resigned from professional membership in accordance with these by-laws, if not qualified for registration under sub-section 15 (2) of the Act, must when applying for reinstatement or licensure, and subject to any additional conditions or exemptions set out in the Manual of Admissions.	6.4.1 Resigned in Good Standing When applying for reinstatement or licensure, a person who has resigned from professional membership in accordance with these by-laws and who is not qualified for registration under sub-section 15 (2) of the Act must comply with the conditions or exemptions set out in the Manual of Admissions.	Existing wording is illogical. New wording reflects the current practices of the Registration Committee
